To the attention of nationals of the Member States of the Eurasian Economic Union intended to be employed in the Russian Federation.

The Resolution of the Government of the Russian Federation dated December 4, 2017 No. 1467 establishes the permissible share of foreign employees, used by business entities, engaged in the implementation of certain types of economic activities on the territory of the Russian Federation.

Paragraph 1 of Article 97 of the Treaty on the Eurasian Economic Union dated May 29, 2014 (hereinafter – the Treaty on the EAEU) establishes that employers and/or customers of works (services) of a Member State may employ workers of the Member States without consideration of any restrictions for the protection of their national labor market. However, workers of the Member States shall not be required to obtain employment permits for the state of employment.

In this regard, according to the explanations of the Ministry of Labor and Social Protection of the Russian Federation (Letter No. 16-4/B138 dated March 28, 2018) received by the Eurasian Economic Commission, the permissible share of foreign employees, used by business entities, engaged in the implementation of certain types of economic activities on the territory of the Russian Federation, approved by the Resolution of the Government of the Russian Federation dated 4 December 2017 No. 1467, shall not apply to nationals of the Republic of Armenia, the Republic of Belarus, the Republic of Kazakhstan and the Kyrgyz Republic based on the provisions of the Treaty on the EAEU.
